

Whig and Courier.

John S. Sayward,--Editor.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1847.

Position of Parties in the U. S. Senate.

The recent denunciation of McClellan and his friends by President Polk's official organ, the U. S. renders it important to see how the U. S. Senate will stand after the 4th of March, next, with reference to the three parties into which it will be divided.

The following will be the situation of party in the Senate as far as they can now be ascertained:

Whig-Democrats—7

Vermont—Hu. Verplanck

N. H.—Cath. & S. Carolina

B. C.—B. Butler

Mass.—J. S. Coggin

R. I.—A. D. Gilpin

Conn.—W. Westcott

N. J.—C. G. H. Hayes

Penn.—J. W. D. Gilpin

Ala.—R. M. T. Hunter

Miss.—D. C. Dickinson

N. C.—C. G. Johnson

Tenn.—J. P. Pease

Kentucky—S. Pugh

Ohio—J. M. Jones

Ind.—J. L. Jones

Illino.—J. C. G. Jones

Mich.—J. C. G. Jones

Mich.—F. P. Jones

Conn.—J. C. G. Jones

Mass.—J. C. G. Jones

Conn.—J. C. G. Jones

Conn.</b

